Christoph Croisé (1993*) is a cellist with international concert appearance. At the age of 17, he made his Debut concert at Carnegie Hall in New York, where he is performing regularly since then. He has performed in further world-renowned concert halls like the Tonhalle Zurich, the Vienna Konzerthaus, the Residenz Munich, the Capella St. Petersburg and the State Philharmonia Baku. Several of his concerts have been live broadcast by radio and television, for example Schumann's cello concerto with the Munich Radio Orchestra on the Bavarian Radio.

Christoph Croisé started playing cello at the age of seven with Katharina Kühne. He has been studying with Alexander Neustroev since 2007 and with Wolfgang Emanuel Schmidt at the Berlin University of Arts since 2013. He benefited from major artistic advice from Steven Isserlis, Michael Sanderling, David Geringas, Walter Gimmer and Frans Helmerson. Christoph Croisé is winner of the first prize at the international competition „Ibla Grand Prize“ in Sicily in 2010. He also won the first prize of the international competition „Petar Konjović“ in Belgrad in 2009.

Oxana Shevchenko is internationally recognised as a pianist of outstanding artistry, equally in demand as soloist and chamber musician. In 2010, at age of 23, Oxana won First Prize at the Scottish International Piano Competition. Right after her triumph Oxana worked with Delphian Records on her debut recording, which was released in 2011 and includes works by Shostakovich, Mozart, Liszt and Ravel: “This is the most exciting debut disc to come my way for some time... I look forward eagerly to her future releases” Gramophone (Editor's Choice).

Competition successes include also First Prize at the International Balys Dvarionas Music Competition, the Sheepdrove Intercollegiate Piano Competition, Fourth Prize, the International Music Critic Prize and a Special Prize for the best interpretation of Busoni's work in the Ferruccio Busoni International Piano Competition in Italy (2009), Third Prize in the Sendai International Music Competition in Japan (2007) with a special prize for the best interpretation of a 20th Century concerto and Third Prize in the International China Shanghai Piano Competition in China (2009).
